3 LEGISLATION AND STANDARDS

The objectives of the Standards for RTOs 2025 are to ensure nationally consistent, high-quality training, and assessment services for the clients of Australia's Vocational Education and Training (VET) system. The standards specify the key requirements to be met by RTOs. The standards do not specify detailed processes but explain the outcomes to be achieved through the application of each standard. An RTO must be able to show, through systematic approaches to management and continuous improvement, that it is focused on improving its outcomes in relation to each standard.

As an RTO, PIT is required to adhere to legislation designed to uphold the integrity of nationally recognised qualifications and units of competency. This includes:

- National Vocational Education and Training Regulator (Outcome Standards for NVR Registered Training Organisations) Instrument 2025.
- National Vocational Education and Training Regulator (Compliance Standards for NVR Registered Training Organisations and Fit and Proper Person Requirements) Instrument 2025.
- Credential Policy.

Current legislation and Standards for RTOs 2025 is available at: National Vocational Education and Training Regulator \(Outcome Standards for Registered Training Organisations\) Instrument 2025 - Federal Register of Legislation

Additionally, PIT abides by a range of other legal requirements at a State and Commonwealth level, when applicable, including but not limited to the following:

- Anti-discrimination.
- Apprenticeships and Traineeships, Children and Young People.
- Copyright.
- Corporations.
- Employment and Workplace Relations
- Equal Opportunity.
- Fair Work.
- Privacy and Personal Information Protection.
- Student Identifiers.
- Taxation.
- Workplace Health and Safety.

Commonwealth legislation:

- Fair Work Act 2009, as varied or amended.
- Copyright Act 1968, as varied or amended.
- Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988, as varied or amended.
- Commonwealth Sex Discrimination Act 1984, as varied or amended.
- Commonwealth Racial Discrimination Act 1975, as varied or amended.
- Commonwealth Age Discrimination Act 2004, as varied or amended.
- Commonwealth Disability Discrimination Act 1992, as varied or amended.

Legislation can be accessed via www.comlaw.gov.au and www.slp.wa.gov.au.

Consumer protection:

On 1 January 2011, the Australian Consumer Law commenced and the Trade Practices Act 1974 was replaced with the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Australian Consumer Law). The Australian Consumer Law provides for:

- National consumer protection and fair-trading laws.
- Enhanced enforcement powers and redress mechanisms.
- A national unfair contract terms law.
- A new national product safety regime.
- A new national consumer guarantees law.

For more information, refer to www.treasury.gov.au/Policy-Topics/Consumer and www.consumerlaw.gov.au Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC). The ACCC is an independent Australian Government statutory authority.

The ACCC promotes competition and fair trade in the marketplace to benefit consumers, business and the community. It also regulates national infrastructure services. Its primary responsibility is to ensure that individuals and businesses comply with the Commonwealth competition, fair trading and consumer protection laws.

Continuous improvement:

Continuous improvement is an integral part of the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF). Continuous improvement processes refer to the continual enhancement of an RTO's performance so that the changing needs of students, clients, and industry continue to be met. Continuous improvement does not relate to actions to achieve compliance as such actions are considered rectifications.

An effective quality system includes processes that encourage and achieve continuous improvement. For RTOs, this means developing a planned and on-going process to systematically review and improve policies, procedures, products, and services through analysis of relevant information and collection of data from clients and other interested parties, including staff.

As part of PIT's continuous improvement, from time-to-time, you may be asked to contribute feedback as part of this process.

4 CODE OF CONDUCT

As a responsible member of the RTO community, PIT follows a code of conduct that outlines how you can expect the organisation and our staff to behave.

PIT's code of conduct provides that:

PIT is committed to providing a workplace that is professional, harmonious, and productive. To achieve this, it is important that all employees and the Executive of PIT act with the utmost professionalism in their interactions with students, colleagues, clients, contractors, suppliers, and the general public.

Similarly, PIT has expectations for student behaviour to ensure a harmonious and productive learning environment and student journey.

PIT views student misconduct seriously. We expect that our students will behave in an honest, respectful manner appropriate for a learning environment, and in a way that will uphold the integrity of the RTO.

Consequences of student misconduct vary depending on the nature of the misconduct but may include up to expulsion from the course. Examples of student misconduct include, but are not limited to:

- Academic misconduct including plagiarism and cheating.
- Harassment, bullying and/or discrimination.
- Falsifying information.
- Any behaviour or act that is against the law.
- Any behaviour that endangers the health, safety, and wellbeing of others.
- Intentionally damaging equipment and/or materials belonging to PIT and/or a partner organisation such as a workplace.

Consequences for misconduct will vary depending on the severity and frequency of the breach and include, but are not limited to:

- Formal reprimand (warning).
- Suspension from the course.
- Student to reimburse the costs incurred by any damage caused.
- Cancellation of the course without refund and/or credit.
- Matter referred to the police.

Students found guilty of misconduct have a right to lodge an appeal by following our complaints and appeals process outlined in this student handbook.

Academic misconduct:

Plagiarism and cheating are serious breaches. Students engaging in this behaviour will face disciplinary action which could include cancellation of enrolment.

5 WORKPLACE HEALTH AND SAFETY

Workplace health and safety legislation applies to everyone at PIT. All staff, students, and visitors have a responsibility to ensure the workplace is safe and that their own actions do not put the health and safety of others at risk. Please report any incident or hazard immediately to PIT staff.

PIT continues to adapt its response to ensure our training centre maintain appropriate safety protocols.

Our current protocols in place include:

- Room size limits to minimise unnecessary trainee interactions;
- Cleaning and disinfection of all facilities and PPE; and
- Digital course options to limit exposure time where appropriate.

PIT will continue to review the situation, and adjust the protocols as required to ensure the safest training experience possible.

6 DRUGS AND ALCOHOL

As per PIT's drug and alcohol policy, students are not permitted to train with a blood alcohol level greater than 0.000 or under the influence of illicit drugs or prescription drugs that may impair their ability to participate safely in training activities. Students are subject to "for cause" drug and alcohol testing if reasonably suspected to be under the influence of the same by exhibiting signs such as, but not limited to:

- Slurred speech;
- Altered behaviour; and/or
- Sleeping, vomiting, or displaying other irregular symptoms.

Students suspected to be under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol shall be removed from training and their employer informed (if employer provided training). The training will be re-scheduled, and the student is required to undergo a drug and alcohol test at their own expense prior to recommencing training.

Please note:

If it is employer provided training, your employer may request PIT to conduct a breath alcohol test prior to course registration.

7 PRIVACY

PIT and its related bodies corporate believe privacy is an important right of individuals. In addition to the requirements of the Standards for RTOs 2025, we take steps to protect your personal information from misuse and to use your information responsibly in accordance with both our privacy policy and the Privacy Act (Cwlth) 1988 (Privacy Act).

8 ENROLMENT

Your student journey begins with your enrolment.

The enrolment process may vary depending on the type of course you intend to study. A copy of this Student Handbook is available on our website <https://Parabellum.com.au/training-courses/>. Alternatively, it will be supplied for you to read and understand as part of the enrolment process. This will either occur via our online platform or provided as a hard copy.

An enrolment form must be completed (via our online platform), together with any required observations and/or self-assessment regarding special circumstances and/or training needs. PIT may be unable to provide special assistance with a course that may be required to meet your individual needs unless you have requested this and it is agreed to in advance.

Information on the fees and charges relating to your proposed course of study will be provided, and payment terms and methods will be agreed upon with the individual student or their employer.

Once all enrolment forms have been completed, you will be enrolled into the relevant qualification or unit of competency and a Trainer and Assessor will be assigned to help you through the course.

Pre-requisite evidence must be provided at the commencement of your enrolment in the course, in a format that meets the Standards for RTOs 2025 – e.g. statement of attainment as issued by an RTO. To do so please email training@parabellum.com.au.

There are multiple steps, processes and interactions through your enrolment and training process. The following lists your student interactions through the enrolment process (see next page):

1. The course arranger will receive a 'course booking confirmation' email (individual student/employer/arranger) detailing course information such as unit of competency, dates, times, etc.
2. Once received, you are to click on the link from the 'course booking confirmation' email and register with PIT.
3. *aXcelerate*TM (PIT's learning management system) will send you an email which confirms enrolment and provides all relevant unit of competency information, including e-learning requirements. This must occur 24 hours before face-to-face training.
4. You are then required to complete the online training and assessment materials.
5. You will then attend face-to-face training (at the advised location) and complete all assessment materials.
6. The PIT Trainer assesses students and completes all training assessment materials in accordance with RTO Standards 2025.
7. Our Administrator will upload all training material to your student profile in *aXcelerate*TM and *aXcelerate*TM will issue compliant statement of attainment/certificate to you.

If you are unable to register or enrol online, please contact the PIT Administrator at:

- E: training@parabellum.com.au.
- Ph: (08) 9285 6100.

We will be able to assist you with an alternative means of registration or enrolment (i.e., hardcopy, etc) if you cannot enrol online. The PIT team will be available to support and guide you through the enrolment and training process. Please also feel free to contact the PIT Administrator if you have any other queries.

9 ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Please contact PIT to confirm any pre-requisites that are required for entry to the course in which you are interested in participating in. Entry requirements may relate to things such as:

Document No:	Document Title:	Created By:	Modified By:	Approved By:	Revision No:	Revision Date:	Review Date:
PIT-ISS-GDL-002	Student Handbook	J. Keogh	I. Clover	C. Coupland	7A	24.06.2025	24.06.2028

- Previous workplace experience.
- Previous completion of another qualification that is specified as a pre-requisite for a course.
- Levels of Language, Literacy, Numeracy, and Digital Literacy (LLND) skills appropriate for successful completion of the coursework and also, for effective performance in the workplace in the specific job-role.

- Access to a computer that has appropriate software and capacity to access learning and assessment materials.
- Access to an internet connection with sufficient capacity to download course materials (e.g., broadband connection).
- Access to course specific materials such as Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) or other tools of trade.

10 UNIQUE STUDENT IDENTIFIER

A Unique Student Identifier (USI) is your individual education number for life. It also gives you an online record of your VET training undertaken in Australia. A USI is required for all students undertaking nationally recognised training. It allows students to link to a secure online record of all qualifications gained regardless of the provider. This system was implemented by the Australian Government in 2015, so it will show student achievements from 1 January 2015 onwards.

As an RTO, PIT cannot issue accredited certificates or statements of attainment without a USI. Therefore, it is mandatory that all students supply their USI upon enrolment for all accredited courses.

If you do not have a USI, please visit <https://www.usi.gov.au/students/create-your-usi> for more information, and instructions on how to apply.

11 PERSONAL LEARNING PLAN

PIT will work with you to develop a customised plan for your learning that will address course requirements as well as your personal circumstances, if required. This includes the opportunity for you to complete a LLND indicator which will identify any areas in which additional support may be required. Your personal learning plan is tailored to the training being undertaken however, in accordance with the AQF, PIT is not permitted to change the contents of an assessment where the changes depart from the requirements of a unit(s) of competency from a national training package. Parabellum International Training RTO 51786 provides culturally safe support options and can refer Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students to specialised services. Please contact your trainer or the administration officer for confidential assistance and referrals.

Reasonable adjustments will be provided to meet the individual needs of students. These adjustments are designed to ensure that learners are not presented with artificial barriers when demonstrating their achievement in a program of study. Reasonable adjustments may include the use of adaptive technology, additional educational support, or alternative assessment methods such as oral assessments.

Culturally appropriate adjustments—such as flexible scheduling for community or cultural responsibilities—are documented in a support plan, implemented by the trainer, and regularly reviewed for effectiveness.

Support strategies may include:

- Use of assistive or adaptive technologies (e.g. screen readers, speech-to-text software)
- Extra time for assessments or flexible deadlines
- Oral rather than written assessments
- One-on-one academic support or tutoring
- Provision of materials in alternative formats (e.g. large print, audio)
- Scheduled breaks during long assessment or training sessions
- Support from a cultural liaison, Elder, or Indigenous mentor
- Flexibility for community responsibilities (e.g. sorry business, cultural ceremonies)

- Additional literacy or numeracy support
- Modified learning environments (e.g. quiet space, separate room)

All reasonable adjustments and support strategies must be tailored to individual needs, documented clearly, and monitored for ongoing effectiveness.

12 ACCESS AND EQUITY

PIT will work to meet the needs of the community and individuals and/or groups who might be otherwise disadvantaged. This includes providing fair allocation of resources and equal opportunity to access training services. PIT prohibits discrimination based on factors including:

- Gender.
- Age.
- Marital status.
- Sexual orientation.
- Race.
- Ethnicity.
- Religious background.
- Parental status.

PIT will work to ensure all participants have the right resources available to allow successful completion of course requirements. This includes flexible delivery and assessment arrangements where necessary, and LLND support.

It is the responsibility of all staff at PIT to uphold our commitment to access and equity principles. If you have questions or concerns, please contact us on training@parabellum.com.au or on 08 9285 6100 to discuss further.

13 ADDITIONAL SUPPORT SERVICES

PIT is at all times concerned for the welfare of its students. If you are experiencing difficulties and/or require counselling or personal support, there are several professional organisations well equipped to offer services to help. Included are:

Once the course has commenced, PIT can then accept payments (i.e., after course commencement) for the remaining balance.

Please see an example below:

- Prior to course commencement: Student makes an initial payment of $1,499 for a course that costs $5,500 – this payment secures their booking.
- After course commencement: Student makes another payment of $4,001 for the remaining balance.

Please be advised that cancellation of the course will be subject to a cancellation fee at the following rate:

- 50% within 1 week of the course commencing.
- 100% within 48 hours of the course commencing.

Individuals:

If you wish to withdraw from a course, you must advise PIT in writing of your decision within 15 days of the course commencement to avoid penalties. Send your notification to request a refund to training@parabellum.com.au and include the following information:

refunded for the units of competency not trained. The final decision and fees will be clearly communicated to the individual or employer.

Withdrawal due to illness or hardship:

In circumstances of illness and/or extreme hardship, you may withdraw and be entitled to a partial refund under the following conditions:

- Satisfactory evidence for withdrawal (e.g. medical certificate) must be provided.

Students who may have already been assessed as competent for some units of competency in the course will be issued a statement of attainment for these units of competency and the cost of issuing the statement(s) will be deducted from the refund total.

16 COURSE INFORMATION

After enrolment, you will be given access to training materials in hard copy and/or digital format via our e-learning platform/s.

A welcome email will be sent with log-in details so you can register and access PIT's online learning platform. You will be given an outline for training appointments which may be:

- Training delivery and sessions.
- Online modules.
- A combination of the above.

Duration:

How long your course will take depends on a number of factors. Included are your own efforts and commitment to submitting assessments regularly and on time, your study load (i.e. full- or part-time) and how many units of competency (if any) are eligible for credit transfer and/or recognition of previous experience and qualifications.

Further, the level of the qualification being undertaken will impact on course duration. The AQF summarises the criteria of different qualification levels and gives an indication of the complexity, depth of achievement, knowledge, skills, and levels of autonomy required to achieve a qualification at that level.

The AQF expresses the time expected to gain a qualification as an equivalent to full-time years. This is known as the 'volume of learning'.

Volume of learning:

Volume of learning statements provide an indication of the amount of time it is expected that a student would need as a full-time student to achieve the qualification. Volume of learning figures assume none of the competencies identified in a qualification are currently held.

The listed time frames account for all activities a student would undertake, including supervised training activities, classroom sessions, online modules, and/or workplace learning, as well as individual study, practice, and learning.

The volume of learning for qualifications in the VET sector are:

17 COMPETENCY BASED TRAINING

Competency-Based Training (CBT) is an approach to teaching that focuses on allowing a student to demonstrate their ability to do something. Used in the VET sector, CBT is used to develop concrete skills and is typically based on a standard of performance expected in the workplace and industry.

CBT programs deliver qualifications that are made up of units of competency. Each competency defines the skills and knowledge required to effectively perform in the workplace. Assessment is based upon the learning outcomes expected from each unit of competency.

How does assessment work in CBT?

Unlike the traditional school system of grading assessments on a scale ranging from A to Fail, assessment of CBT determines if you have the required skills and knowledge yet or not.

Assessment is specifically conducted to determine if a student can deliver essential outcomes related to the performance criteria within each unit of competency. Basically, this means assessment is conducted to see whether or not a student has the required skills and knowledge to perform effectively in the workplace. If a student's performance in the assessment is successful the student will be deemed 'competent'. Assessors will look for evidence against which to base their judgements of competency. Students who do not successfully achieve competency after three attempts will be deemed not yet competent and will be required to re-enrol and recommence the course.

The ways to demonstrate to our qualified Assessors that you can perform to the required standard and be classed as 'competent' or, if applicable, 'meeting requirements', include:

- Being observed as you work/performance the tasks and activities.
- Responses to verbal questioning.
- Written responses to theory questions.
- Responding to a role play or case study.
- Conducting a project.
- Submitting a written report.
- Compiling a portfolio of work samples.
- A combination of the above.

PIT has a Training and Assessment Strategy (TAS) for each of the qualifications and/or units of competency we deliver, and we outline our approaches for conducting assessment in those strategies.

18 TRAINING AND ASSESSMENT STRATEGIES

PIT staff are appropriately qualified and have sufficient relevant industry experience to train and assess the courses delivered. On occasion, a subject specialist may conduct assessment in conjunction with a fully qualified Assessor. You will be advised of specific instances in your course whereby this may be the case.

PIT-ISS-GDL-002	Student Handbook	J. Keogh	I. Clover	C. Coupland	7A	24.06.2025	24.06.2028

Our methodologies regarding training and assessment work toward ensuring our processes meet national assessment principles including Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL), Recognition of Current Competencies (RCC), and Credit Transfer (CT).

All documents are stored on the PIT's SharePoint server as a redundancy backup.

Flexible learning and assessment:

Included in our training and assessment strategies are practices that promote flexibility in learning and assessment. This means we will work with you to provide options that are responsive to your individual needs, and that maximise learning outcomes and access to learning activities.

19 THIRD-PARTY AGREEMENTS

PIT does not currently engage in any third-party agreements. If this changes, PIT will advise any students of any third-party agreements which it has in place.

20 RECOGNITION PROCESSES

PIT offers assessment processes that enable recognition of competencies currently held, regardless of how, when or where the learning occurred. These are detailed below:

RPL:

RPL is an assessment process that involves making a judgment on the skills and knowledge an individual has as a result of past study and/or experience. The aim of RPL is to recognise your existing competencies without having to go through the complete processes of training and assessment. You will still need to provide evidence though, upon which your assessor can base their judgement. Evidence must be:

- Authentic – it must be your own work.
- Sufficient – it must demonstrate competence over a period of time, that the competencies can be repeated, and the evidence must be enough so that the assessor can make an accurate judgement regarding competency.
- Current – it must demonstrate up-to-date knowledge and skills i.e. from the present or the very-recent past.
- Valid – it must be relevant to what is being assessed.

You may be eligible to apply for RPL on one or more units of competency in your course. Please contact training@parabellum.com.au to discuss your options.

RCC:

RCC is a recognition process similar to RPL. It applies if a student has “...previously successfully completed the requirements for a unit of competency...and is now required to be reassessed to ensure the competence is being maintained”.

Please refer to “Annexure A” for an overview of the recognition process.

CT:

PIT recognises AQF qualifications and statements of attainment that have been issued by other RTOs. Credit transfer may be applied to units of competency and related qualifications that immediately precede the current unit of competency, and have been studied in the past. To apply for a direct credit transfer you will need to supply a certified copy your documentation (certificates and/or statements) etc. Credit transfer application forms can be obtained from the training administrator on 08 9285 6100 training@parabellum.com.au.

For full details on the requirements for credit transfer applications, please contact PIT on 08 9285 6100 training@parabellum.com.au.

Foundation skills:

All training and assessment delivered by PIT contain foundation skills. Foundation skills are embedded into units of competency. They are non-technical skills that support participation in the workplace, the community, and adult education and training. Examples of foundation skills include things such as communication skills, literacy skills (reading, writing, numeracy, and digital literacy), interacting with others, and skills to effectively participate in the workplace such as teamwork, problem solving, and self- and time-management.

21 ASSESSMENT INFORMATION

PIT is committed to supporting our students through their learning journey and ensuring that assessments are conducted in a fair and impartial manner. As part of this process, it is important that students understand the training and assessment processes of PIT.

All student assessments are conducted in a transparent, accountable, flexible, and fair manner. All assessments and Trainers must maintain consistent academic standards.

Submitting assessments:

You are expected to complete assessments for all units of competency in your qualification. You will need to submit assessments by the due date for a result to be recorded. You will receive full and detailed instructions on the requirements for each assessment, including its context and purpose. Please ensure you talk to your Trainer and/or Assessor to clarify anything that is not clear to you.

Re-submissions:

You may receive feedback stating: “You will need to provide more evidence to support your claim for competency.” This may mean re-doing some of the theory questions, putting extra or more relevant information into your portfolio, or demonstrating a task again.

PIT charges a fee for re-submission of assessments, which will be advised to you. If, after 2 re-submissions, your work is still unsatisfactory, you will be awarded a result of ‘not yet competent’ and required to re-enrol in, and re-do the work for the unit of competency, in order to achieve the full qualification.

Talk to the PIT Administrator for more information regarding this. All of the staff at PIT will take every reasonable effort to help you succeed in your course and ensure you are supported through your student and learning journey.

Assessment feedback:

You will receive feedback regarding the outcome of each of your assessment items. To be deemed ‘competent’ against a nationally accredited unit of competency, you must meet the requirements for all elements that comprise of that unit of competency.

22 PLAGIARISM

PIT-ISS-GDL-002	Student Handbook	J. Keogh	I. Clover	C. Coupland	7A	24.06.2025	24.06.2028

All work that you submit must be your own. Plagiarism is taking someone else's work and/or ideas and passing them off as your own. It is a form of cheating and is taken seriously by PIT. To help you understand, the following are examples that constitute plagiarism:

- Copying sections of text and not acknowledging where the information has come from.
- Mashing together multiple 'cut and paste' sections, without properly referencing them, to form an assessment response.
- Presenting work that was done as part of a group as your own.
- Using information (pictures, text, designs, ideas etc.) and not citing the original author(s).
- Unintentionally failing to cite where information has come from.

23 REFERENCING

When it comes to properly acknowledging where information has come from, students should be aware of, and be able to properly use, referencing protocols.

Understandably, some sites can have very detailed explanations which may be overwhelming for some students. The PIT team area available to assist students at all times through their learning journey and can be contacted utilising details previously provided.

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of that discussion, you may request a formal review of the assessment decision.

Should you not be satisfied with any aspect of your student journey (either with PIT, a learner of PIT, or a third party if applicable) and have raised your concerns with our training team to no resolve, please raise the complaint or appeal as per the below.

PIT will always securely maintain records of all complaints and appeals and their outcomes. Following the closure of the complaint, PIT will identify potential causes and take appropriate corrective action to mitigate a future re-occurrence.

PIT's process for managing a complaint or appeal are outlined in the following flowchart:
